Itinerary: After meeting, we will proceed to a nearby launch site. You are as welcome to watch setting the balloon up as you are giving us a hand. The choice is yours, and this is only available with private balloon adventures. After a short briefing the pilot will ask you to get into the basket and a couple of burns later, you will experience the over 250 years old form of aviation.

No flight is like the other and we steer by using different wind directions at different altitudes.

Towards the end of the flight, usually after an hour plus, the pilot will navigate to a safe and accessible landing site.

Again you are welcome to help us packing the balloon or enjoy the impressions of the flight. A typical European balloon celebration with champagne or cider follows the packing.

From the landing site we will shuttle you back to the meeting point.

Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to call us.
